i. A/P- 1012 and 1013

ii. Payroll: 7 and 8

c. Gifts and Donations:

a. First Annual Car Show at Thousand Trails -$836.75

B. Specific Items of District Business which require Action

1. Request for discussion and approval to enter into an Intergovernmental agreement for three years for a data warehousing project with Yavapai County. This will collect and electronically store information on students in a secure website, allowing the staff to get longitudinal data on students to help inform instruction for teachers. The cost for the three year project will be free for year one, one half the cost for year two and full cost for year three. Right now the cost is estimated at $3 per student. Mrs. Ward has observed the information and feels that it will be a positive additional to the data collection process currently in place, saving human capacity for student interaction.

2. Personnel Action

a. Acceptance of Volunteer Winter Sport Coaches
